

Three Rivers Community Foundation Receives Grant from the Greater Columbia Accountable Community of Health

Three Rivers Community Foundation was very pleased to receive a Social Determinants of Health Grant from the Greater Columbia Accountable Community of Health. Following the application process, six local nonprofits received a total of $391,000 to address those determinants that are most impactful to people's health.

Nonprofits who received funding through this grant:

- Catholic Charities
- Communities in Schools
- Community Action Connections
- Grace Clinic
- The Chaplaincy
- Tri-Cities Residential Services